NATIONAL
work & family
 MONTH
 OCTOBER 2016

National Work & Family Month, established in 2003 and celebrated every October, focuses on the challenges working families face every day. The month is nationally recognized by businesses, academic institutions, federal agencies, members of Congress, work-life advocacy groups and individuals who want to make it easier for employees to succeed at work and at home.

Visit: Worldatwork.org to explore the tools and resources in each area so you can enhance your life at work and with family.

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

STACEY COOK

What is your job title and how long have you been with the City of Bel Aire?

I've been with the City for around 6 years, and am the Planning & Zoning Assistant. Our long-time City Clerk, Jamie Hayes, recently accepted a great job opportunity so I am stepping into her role as well!

What is your favorite part about working here?

I'm lucky to be able to say that many of my coworkers have become some of my closest friends. Over the years, I've also enjoyed getting to know many of Bel Aire's residents, and I look forward to seeing familiar faces pop in the office each month.

What do you like to do for fun?

Being outside is one of my favorite things; last summer I took a trip to Red Rock Canyon and Sequoia National Park, and had a blast hiking and exploring. I've also recently decided I want to learn how to garden, so I'm already impatient for spring. My green thumb, however, is questionable at best so we'll see how that pans out.

What is one thing you couldn't live without?

Coffee, coffee, with a side of coffee. Morning, noon or night – chances are, I have a cup of it within reach.

If you could go anywhere in the world, where would you find yourself?

My mother was born in Seoul, South Korea and it's been a dream of mine to have the chance to see where she was raised. She's told me stories my whole life, so it would be particularly special to make the trip together. Also, if you're a foodie like me, the street food is supposed to be out of this world
